INTRODUCTION

For the reasons set forth below, the statements contained in the declaration of Jerry S. Goldman, Esq., with Exhibits appended thereto (“Goldman Declaration”) which is being filed contemporaneously with this memorandum of law, as well as those set forth in prior motions for damages made on behalf of the O’Neill wrongful death plaintiffs, certain plaintiffs in the above-referenced matter who are identified on Exhibits A and B to the Goldman Declaration (collectively, the “O’Neill II Plaintiffs”) by and through their counsel, Anderson Kill, P.C., respectfully move this Court for an Order:

- (1) awarding the Plaintiffs identified in Exhibit A, if any, to the Goldman Declaration filed contemporaneously with the Memorandum of Law (“Exhibit A”) judgment as to damages in the same amounts previously awarded by this Court to various similarly situated plaintiffs in Burnett, Havlish, Ashton, Bauer, and other cases, except as in the case of plaintiff-personal representatives of 9/11 Decedents;
- (2) awarding the Estates of 9/11 Decedents through their personal representatives, and on behalf of all survivors and all legally entitled beneficiaries and family member of such 9/11 Decedents, as identified on Exhibit B to the Goldman Declaration filed contemporaneously with this Memorandum of Law (“Exhibit B”), compensatory damages for pain and suffering in the same per estate amount previously awarded by this Court regarding other estates of decedents killed in the September 11th attacks, as set forth in Exhibit B;
- (3) awarding the Estate(s) of 9/11 Decedents through their personal representative(s), and on behalf of all survivors and all legally entitled beneficiaries and family member of such 9/11 Decedent(s), as identified on Exhibit B, an award of economic damages in the amounts as set forth on Exhibit B;

(4) awarding the Plaintiffs identified on Exhibits A and B pre-judgment interest at the rate of 4.96 percent per annum, compounded annually for the period from September 11, 2001 until the date of the judgment for damages;

(5) granting the Plaintiffs identified in Exhibits A and B permission to seek punitive damages, economic damages, and other appropriate damages at a later date;

(6) determining that service of process was properly effected upon the Iran Defendants in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a) for sovereign defendants and 28 U.S.C. § 1608(b) for agencies and instrumentalities of sovereign defendants; and,

(7) granting permission for all other plaintiffs in this action not appearing on Exhibits A and/or B to submit applications for damages awards in later stages, to the extent such awards have not previously been addressed.<sup>123</sup>

This motion is made only on behalf of the O'Neill II Plaintiffs listed in Exhibits A and B attached to the Goldman Declaration.

<sup>1</sup> The plaintiffs listed on Exhibit A are the relatives of a 9/11 decedent, which includes individuals who are not named in the complaint but are entitled to receive judgments for solatium based on their relationship to the 9/11 decedent. In the case of a relative who died subsequent to the 9/11 decedent, the claim is brought by the personal representative of the relative's estate. As noted below, each personal representative has provided the undersigned counsel with proof that he or she has been appointed by the court as the personal representative of the deceased relative, except in the cases specifically identified in the Goldman Declaration, where a party has filed a petition to be so appointed, which petition, on information and belief, is unopposed, but has not yet been granted. Goldman Declaration at ¶¶ 4-6.

There are no new solatium claims at this time for this complaint.

<sup>2</sup> The plaintiffs listed on Exhibit B are the personal representatives of a 9/11 decedent. In all cases, they are submitting claims for compensatory damages as a result of the death of the 9/11 decedent. Where there are expert reports demonstrating economic losses as a result death submitted with the Goldman Declaration, as outlined therein and herein, the personal representatives are additionally seeking economic damages in the amounts set forth in Exhibit "B". Those personal representatives who are seeking at this time to solely recover compensatory damages for pain and suffering are specifically raising their right to seek an additional judgment, at a future date, for economic damages, based upon then submitted evidence. As noted below, each personal representative has provided the undersigned counsel with proof that he or she has been appointed by the court as the personal representative of the deceased relative. Goldman Declaration at ¶¶ 4-7.

<sup>3</sup> Exhibits A and B only includes plaintiffs who will be submitting US VSST applications on or before February 19, 2020. The remaining plaintiffs have either already filed a motion for damages or intend to file a similar motion seeking damages at a later date.

As the awards set forth in the attached proposed order represent the only direct recovery against Iran on behalf of the O'Neill II Plaintiffs, any award issued to those individuals will constitute final awards and judgments against Iran for those plaintiffs listed in Exhibits A and B to the Goldman Declaration.

I. Procedural Background

On or about August 11, 2015, the O'Neill Plaintiffs filed a motion for a default judgment against the Islamic Republic for Iran (“Iran”) for liability. In re Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001, No. 03-md-1570 (hereinafter “MDL”), ECF No. 2994. On August 31, 2015, the Court granted the motion for liability with leave to seek a determination of damages at a later date. MDL, ECF No. 3022.<sup>4</sup> Certain O'Neill II Plaintiffs set forth on Exhibit “A” have been added pursuant to a Notice of Amendment being filed contemporaneously with this Motion as discussed in Section II-A-1, herein.

This motion is being submitted in accordance with various procedural orders entered by this Court, and the form of this motion and the relief requested herein are intended to comply with various orders of this Court, including the following:

- a. The Court’s order dated January 24, 2017 (ECF No. 3435), requiring that “[a]ll further motions for final judgment against any defaulting defendant shall be accompanied by a sworn declaration attesting that the attorney has (1) complied with the due diligence safeguards [referenced in Section II.D. of the January 23, 2017 letter from the Plaintiffs’ Executive Committee (ECF No. 3433)] and (2) personally verified that no relief has previously been awarded to any plaintiff included in the judgment (or, if relief has been awarded, the nature of that relief).” For compliance with the required sworn declaration, please see paragraph 6, below.
- b. The Court’s Order dated October 14, 2016 (ECF No. 3363) concerning the amounts of solatium damage awards.

<sup>4</sup> The original O'Neill Complaint was filed in the summer of 2003. There are now a total of eighteen (18) separate (per Court order) O'Neill Complaints filed by Jerry S. Goldman, Esq. related to Iran, with which are collectively referred to as “O'Neill Iran” Complaints.

- c. The Court's Order dated October 14, 2016 (ECF No. 3362) related to the cases captioned as Bauer v. Al Qaeda Islamic Army, 02-CV-7236 (GBD)(SN) and Ashton v. al Qaeda Islamic Army, 02-CV-6977 (GBD)(SN).
- d. The Court's Order dated October 28, 2019 (ECF No. 5234) setting forth updated procedural rules.
- e. The Court's Order dated October 28, 2019 (ECF No. 5338) setting forth the scheduling order.

II. Damages

Section 1605A of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (“FSIA”), permits a foreign state to be held accountable for acts of terrorism or the provision of material support or resources for acts of terrorism where the acts or provision of support or resources were engaged in by an official, employee, or agent of the foreign state while acting within the scope of his or her office, employment, or agency. 28 U.S.C. § 1605A(a)(1). The statute specifies that damages are available “for personal injury or death,” § 1605A(a)(1) and (c)(4), and include “economic damages, solatium, pain and suffering, and punitive damages.” § 1605A(c)(4). Courts addressing the damages available under the statute have held that, among other damages recoverable, “family members can recover solatium for their emotional injury; and all plaintiffs can recover punitive damages.” MDL, ECF No. 2623 at 2-3 (quoting Valore v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 700 F. Supp. 2d 52, 83 (D.D.C. 2010)).

Plaintiffs identified in Exhibit A, if any, are comprised of immediate family members of those killed on 9/11, as demonstrated by documentary evidence of their familial relationship to a 9/11 decedent, such as birth or marriage certificates, sworn affidavits, official documents or other documents signed under penalty of perjury, which attest to a familial relationship eligible for recovery, and, in the case of a subsequently deceased family member, a death certificate or sworn affidavit which reflects that the claimant did not predecease the 9/11 victim.<sup>5</sup> See Goldman Declaration at ¶¶ 4-7. Plaintiffs identified in Exhibit B are comprised of the estates of victims who perished on 9/11, in claims asserted by their personal representatives, as demonstrated by documentary evidence in the form of official documents from probate and administration proceedings from Surrogate's, Probate, Orphan's and similar judicial bodies. See Goldman Declaration at ¶¶ 4-7, 14-22.

As liability has been established in this matter, each moving plaintiff is now entitled to damages in the amounts set forth on Exhibits A and B, which reflect the damage amounts previously established and applied by this Court in this and other related cases arising from the terrorists attacks on September 11, 2001 (the "9/11 Attacks") or based upon expert economic reports submitted herewith. In accordance with the terms of the FSIA, the Plaintiffs identified in Exhibits A and B are entitled to compensation under Section 1605A for their solatium, pain and suffering and economic damages, as applicable, and are also entitled to prejudgment interest. Further, each moving party estate of a 9/11 Decedent is now entitled to compensatory damages for pain and suffering, as set forth in Exhibit B, which are the same amounts as previously established by the Court in related cases arising from the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001. Finally, such moving party estate(s) of 9/11 Decedent who has/have tendered expert economic reports at this time, as identified herein, in the Goldman Declaration, and on Exhibit B, are entitled to economic damages.

A. Pain and Suffering Damages (O'Neill Estate)

As noted above, the plaintiffs identified in Exhibit B include the personal representatives of the estates of individuals who were killed in the 9/11 Attacks, which seek compensatory damages for the decedent's pain and suffering. This Court previously assessed the entitlement and value of pain and suffering awards to estates for their decedents' deaths in this litigation. 03-md-1570, ECF Nos. 2618 at 7-9.

The plaintiffs identified in Exhibit A includes the estate of one individual, John P. O'Neill, Sr., killed in the 9/11 Attacks, which seek damages for the decedent's pain and suffering.

For the reasons articulated by this Court previously, the above stated Estate and as set forth in Exhibit B respectfully request that the Court grant awards for the decedent's pain and suffering in the amount of Two Million ($2,000,000) Dollars per estate. See id. at 9; 03-md-1570, ECF No. 2624 at 1, 3-4 (Judge Daniels awarding $2,000,000 per estate). See Goldman Declaration ¶¶13.

B. Economic Damages (O'Neill Estate)

The FSIA specifically provides for economic damages. See 28 U.S.C. § 1605A(c). The economic damages provision is “designed to compensate [a] decedent’s heirs-at-law for economic losses which result from [the] decedent’s premature death.” Flatow v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 999 F. Supp. 1, 27 (D.D.C. 1998). Accordingly, “the beneficiaries of each decedent’s estate [are] … entitled to recover the present value of economic damages, including lost wages that the decedents might reasonably have been expected to earn but for their wrongful deaths.” Valore v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 700 F. Supp. 2d 52, 81-82 (D.D.C. 2010), citing Heiser, 466 F.Supp.2d 229. Thus, for example, United States District Court Royce C. Lambreth of the District of Columbia, in a series of decisions issuing final judgments against the Islamic Republic of Iran under the FSIA, has held Iran “liable for the economic damages caused to decedents' estates." Roth v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 78 F. Supp. 3d 379, 399-400 (D.D.C. 2015), quoting Valore, 700 F.Supp.2d at 78.<sup>6</sup>

Previously, this Court awarded economic damages in prior Iran cases for the "economic losses stemming from the wrongful death of the decedent[.]" See 03-md-1570 (02-cv-6977) (S.D.N.Y.) (GBD) (FM), ECF No. 2623, Entered 10/03/12, at 2-3. In doing so, it adopted the economic loss calculations set forth in the plaintiffs' economic expert reports.

Certain of the Estates set forth on Exhibit B, and as specifically identified and set forth therein,<sup>7</sup> and which provided economic expert reports, transmitted to the Court in the Goldman Declaration, seek economic damages, similar to the plaintiffs in the prior Iran cases in this Court under the standards set in the District of Columbia cases cited herein. Goldman Declaration ¶¶14-22.

As described at length, In this case, plaintiffs retained the services of an expert, John F. Beauzile, who possesses a Master's Degree in Actuarial Science from Columbia University ("Expert"), to evaluate the economic losses resulting from decedent's death as a result of the 9/11 Attacks. Goldman Declaration at ¶¶14-22.

As described in more detail in the Goldman Declaration, and the Expert's declaration (which is Exhibit "D" to the Goldman Declaration), we obtained, generally through a Freedom of Information Act Request, entire Victims Compensation Fund ("VCF") files for a substantial number of the O'Neill Iran plaintiffs.<sup>8</sup> Those files, along with other materials provided by the

<sup>6</sup> In adopting this estate-accumulations calculation, Judge Lambreth recognized that case law under the FSIA was "develop[ing] ... a federal standard" and looked to the law of the District of Columbia, which it concluded was "an appropriate model" to adopt and which calculated economic damages as the loss of accretions to the decedent's estate. Roth, 78 F.Supp.3d at 82.

<sup>7</sup> To the extent other estates are referenced on Exhibit A, these are estates of family members of 9/11 decedents who themselves have passed away in the years following the September 11th attacks, as opposed to the estates of the 9/11 Decedents who are listed on Exhibit B.

clients, contained various economic expert reports, VCF applications, VCF work-papers and distribution plans, VCF determinations, underlying economic documents and the like. Using methodology and assumptions described in his declaration, relying on earlier expert reports, determinations by the VCF, and other documents, the Expert prepared an up-to-date economic loss expert reports (collectively “Expert Reports”). A copy of the expert report relevant to this motion is attached to the Goldman Declaration as Exhibit B-1. Goldman Declaration at ¶¶14-22.

The plaintiffs identified in Exhibit A includes the estate of one individual, John P. O’Neill, Sr., killed in the 9/11 Attacks, which seeks economic damages similar to the plaintiff in the Havlish case.

What follows is a summary of the conclusions drawn by the Expert as set forth in Exhibit B-1 of the Goldman Declaration. Goldman Declaration at ¶¶14-22. The economic damage amounts as updated by Mr. Beauzile total $3,831,235, which is comprised of the following sums and are reflected on Exhibit B to the Goldman Declaration:

Present Value of Lost Earnings:	$2,214,247
Present Value of Retirement Benefits	$1,616,88
Present Value of Lost Replacement Services	0
Total	$3,831,235

Based on the foregoing, the O’Neill II plaintiffs respectfully ask that this Court award economic damages to this Estate set forth in Exhibit B in the amounts set forth in Exhibit B as supported by the Expert Report.

C. Punitive Damages

Under the FSIA plaintiffs are also entitled to punitive damages. 28 U.S.C. § 1605A(c)(4). In the Havlish Report and Recommendation on Damages, the magistrate judge explained that a “3.44 ratio ‘has been established as the standard ratio applicable to cases arising out of’ terrorist attacks.” MDL, ECF No. 2618 at 13 (quoting Estate of Bland v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 831 F. Supp. 2d 150, 158 (D.D.C. 2011)). This Court adopted that recommendation and awarded punitive damages on each compensatory damages category at a ratio of 3.44 (punitive) to 1 (compensatory). MDL, ECF No. 2623 at 2. The Court has applied that ratio to awards for plaintiffs in other related cases. See, e.g., MDL, ECF No. 3175 at 3 (Magistrate Judge Maas Report and Recommendation to apply a 3.44 punitive multiplier); MDL, ECF No. 3229 at 1 (Judge Daniels adopting in its entirety Judge Maas's Report and Recommendation to apply a 3.44 multiplier); MDL, ECF No. 3300 at 1 and Exhibit A (Judge Daniels applying 3.44 punitive multiplier to claims in Ashton).

However, in Hoglan, another case in the In re Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001 multidistrict litigation, Magistrate Judge Netburn recommended that the plaintiffs' request for punitive damages be denied without prejudice. MDL, ECF No. 3363 at 28. Judge Daniels adopted Judge Netburn's Report in its entirety, denying without prejudice the plaintiffs' request for punitive damages. MDL, ECF No. 3384 at 6.

In light of the Court's decision in related litigation to defer determination of punitive damage issues until a later stage of the litigation, Plaintiffs herein request permission to address the issue of punitive damages at a later date. See, e.g., MDL, ECF No. 3666 (Judge Daniels' order in Burnett, authorizing plaintiffs to make an application for punitive damages at a later date consistent with any future rulings of the Court).

D. Prejudgment Interest

An award of prejudgment interest is within the sound discretion of a trial court and is warranted when plaintiffs are delayed in recovering compensation for non-economic injuries caused by acts of terrorism. See Baker v. Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahirya, 775 F. Supp. 2d 48, 86 (D.D.C. 2011). This Court awarded the Havlish plaintiffs prejudgment interest at a rate of 4.96% on their pain and suffering damages awards, to be calculated from September 11, 2001, until the date of judgment. MDL, ECF No. 2618 at 13-14. This Court, recognizing that prejudgment interest was appropriate in cases such as this case, adopted the magistrate judge's reasoning, finding that an award of prejudgment interest was appropriate and accepting the rate of 4.96%, as proposed by the Havlisch plaintiffs' expert.

After the Havlisch award, plaintiffs in Ashton and Bauer proposed, and the Court agreed, that prejudgment simple interest at the New York State statutory rate of nine percent per annum was appropriate in cases where the injuries arose in New York and the prejudgment interest used in Havlisch, 4.96 percent per annum, compounded annually, should be reserved for only those cases where the injuries arose in other states. See MDL, ECF Nos. 3229 at 2; 3300 at 1; 3341 at 1.

The Second Circuit has held that New York State's statutory prejudgment interest rate should apply to the damages awarded to World Trade Center complex leaseholders in their litigation against American Airlines and United Airlines brought under the federal Air Transportation Safety and System Stabilization Act ("ATSSSA"). Pub. L. No. 107-42, 115 Stat. 230 (2001) (codified as amended at 49 U.S.C. § 40101); World Trade Ctr. Props. LLC v. Am. Airlines, Inc. (In re September 11th Litig.), 802 F.3d 314, 343 (2d Cir. 2015). In that case, the Second Circuit concluded that a federal cause of action under the ATSSSA must look to state rules concerning prejudgment interest. Id. Accordingly, the Second Circuit held that New York's statutory prejudgment interest rate of nine percent as opposed to a lower rate crafted under federal law, had to be applied to the plaintiffs' claims related to the 9/11 Attacks. Id.

However, more recently, in Hoglan, Magistrate Judge Netburn recommended that the 4.96 percent interest rate for prejudgment interest should be applied to all of the solatium claims. MDL, ECF No. 3363 at 28-29. Judge Daniels adopted Judge Netburn's Hoglan Report in its entirety and applied the interest rate of 4.96 percent per annum, compounded annually to all of the claims. MDL, ECF No. 3384 at 6. Thereafter, in Burnett II, the Court again awarded prejudgment interest of 4.96 per annum, compounded annually.

In light of the Court's decisions in the Hoglan and Burnett matters, applying the 4.96 percent rate to prejudgment interest, the O'Neill II Plaintiffs identified in Exhibits A and B respectfully request that the clerk be directed to award prejudgment interest at the rate of 4.96 percent per annum, compounded annually, running from September 11, 2001, until the date of the judgment.

III. Conclusion

For all of the reasons herein, in the papers previously submitted to this Court in support of damages against Iran in this MDL, and as previously decided by this Court, the O'Neill II Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Honorable Court enter an order:

- (1) awarding the Plaintiffs identified in Exhibit A, if any, judgment as to damages in the same amounts previously awarded by this Court to various similarly situated plaintiffs in Burnett, Ashton, Havlish, Bauer, and other cases, except as in the case of plaintiff-personal representatives of 9/11 Decedents;
- (2) awarding the Estate of 9/11 Decedents through their personal representatives, and on behalf of all survivors and all legally entitled beneficiaries and family member of such 9/11 Decedents, as identified on Exhibit B, compensatory damages for pain and suffering in the same per estate amount previously awarded by this Court regarding other estates of decedents killed in the September 11th attacks, that is Two Million ($2,000,000.00) Dollars, as set forth in Exhibit B;
- (3) awarding the Estate(s) of 9/11 Decedent(s) through their personal representative(s), and on behalf of all survivors and all legally entitled beneficiaries and family member of such 9/11 Decedent(s), as identified on Exhibit B, an award of economic damages in the amounts as set forth on Exhibit B;

- (4) awarding the Plaintiffs identified on Exhibits A and B pre-judgment interest at the rate of 4.96 percent per annum, compounded annually for the period from September 11, 2001 until the date of the judgment for damages;
- (5) granting the Plaintiffs identified in Exhibits A and B permission to seek punitive damages, economic damages, and other appropriate damages at a later date;
- (6) determining that service of process was properly effected upon the Iran Defendants in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a) for sovereign defendants and 28 U.S.C. § 1608(b) for agencies and instrumentalities of sovereign defendants; and,
- (7) granting permission for all other plaintiffs in this action not appearing on Exhibits A and/or B to submit applications for damages awards in later stages, to the extent such awards have not previously been addressed.
